

Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation Board of Directors / 2024

Stephanie Anthony
Geneva, Illinois

Stephanie E. Anthony is a teaching elder who serves as the pastor and head of staff of Fox Valley Presbyterian Church in Geneva, Illinois. She is a member and past moderator of the Committee on the Office of the General Assembly. During her two terms on COGA she has been the committee's representative on the former Audit Committee and the Presbyterian Mission Agency Board of Directors. Prior to moving to Illinois in 2016, she served as the pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Hudson, Wisconsin and the associate pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Lincoln, Nebraska.

SanDawna Ashley
East Syracuse, New York

SanDawna Gaulman Ashley serves as the Transitional Synod Leader for the Synod of the Northeast. Since 1999 she has served on four denominational levels: mid council ministry presbytery and synod, national staff for the Office of the General Assembly and the Presbyterian Mission Agency, and a local pastor. SanDawna is a member of the Presbyterian Mission Agency Board. Her ministry includes ministry administration, reorganizations, leadership development and change management. She holds degrees from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary (Doctor of Ministry), Johnson C. Smith Theological Seminary (Master of Divinity), and Georgia State University (Bachelor of Social Work).

Heidi Bolt,
Salem, Oregon

Heidi Bolt is a teaching elder who most recently served as co-pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Red Wing, MN, and as the COM Coordinator for the Presbytery of the Twin Cities Area. She was elected by the 224th General Assembly (2020) to the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation, and served as the board co-chair until June 2023.

Heidi received her M.Div. from Union Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond, VA. She recently served on the Family Leave Policy Task Force created by the 223rd General Assembly (2018).

Bridget-Anne Hampden
Charlotte, North Carolina

Re-elected by the 224th General Assembly (2020) to the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation (A Corp), Bridget-Anne Hampden currently serves co-chair of its Board. Bridget-Anne is also a board member of the Presbyterian Church Foundation and in that capacity, she is the Foundation's representative to the A Corp board.

Bridget-Anne has over 30 years of global financial, information technology, strategic planning and human capital management experience. She has held senior positions such as chief information officer, chief technology risk executive and chief contingency planning executive for large financial institutions. She also served as a Senior Advisor in the Department of Education - Federal Student Aid during the Obama Administration. Bridget-Anne has held leadership positions on numerous nonprofit boards and is a member and ruling elder of C.N. Jenkins Memorial Presbyterian Church in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Rebecca Kirkpatrick
Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania

Rebecca Kirkpatrick, a teaching elder, has served as Associate Pastor for Adult Education and Mission at Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church outside of Philadelphia since 2015. Prior to that, she served as a PC (USA) Mission Co-worker at the Evangelical Theological Seminary in Cairo, working with faculty there on the development of online teaching practices. Rebecca was ordained in 2002, at Sunnyside Presbyterian Church, in South Bend, Indiana where she served for ten years as Associate Pastor for Education, Youth Ministry and Mission.

Rebecca holds a BA in History and Peace Studies from the George Washington University and an MDiv from McCormick Theological Seminary. In 2022 Rebecca also earned a Masters of Science in Church Management from Villanova University's Business School.

Rebecca served as a board member of the Presbyterian Publishing Corporation.

Mark Lu
San Diego, California

Mark Lu was elected by the 224th General Assembly (2020) to the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation, as sent by the Board of Pensions to be the agency representative. Mark has recently concluded service to the Board of Pensions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and was previously on the Board of Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Foundation.

Mark had served on his home church's stewardship committee, and as a member of the Grace First Presbyterian Church in Long Beach, California, has served on its finance committee.

For over 25 years, Mark has worked in various finance disciplines of insurance industries and is currently working as a strategy professional in Contract Financial Management with a pharmacy benefit manager organization of a national health insurance carrier. Mark holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in Applied Mathematics from the University of California at San Diego.

Christopher M. Mason
New York City, New York

Christopher M. Mason was elected by the 223rd General Assembly (2018) to the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation (A Corp.). Chris had previously served on the All Agency Review Committee of the 222nd General Assembly (2016) and before that, for eight years as a member of the Board of Directors of the Board of Pensions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). He served as co-chair of the A Corp. Board from 2018 through 2021.

Chris is a partner in the law firm of Nixon Peabody LLP, where he holds and has held various leadership positions, including as a member for six years of the firm's board, a member since its inception of the firm's Pro Bono Committee, deputy head of the firm's Class Action Team, and head of the firm's Arbitration Team. He has been appointed by New York state and federal courts as a mediator in numerous cases over the past 20 years and was recently selected for the Mediation Advisory Committee for the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. He has served as deacon, elder, usher, and member or head of numerous committees for the Brick Presbyterian Church in the City of New York. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Presbytery of New York City (for the third time) and has been, among other things, the moderator of the Permanent Judicial Commission of the Presbytery, a member of its Committee for Ministry, a commissioner on various administrative commissions, and a member of several investigative committees. In addition to his law practice and the church, he is involved in a number of other organizations, including as a member of the Board of Directors of the Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights Under Law.

Thomas McNeill
Avon, Connecticut

Thomas McNeill is an elder and chair of the investment committee of First Presbyterian Church in Hartford, Connecticut. He worked for nine years at Aetna as real estate investment counsel and has been self-employed since 1987 as a lawyer doing financings, real estate and probate estates and he holds a real estate broker's license in Connecticut.

Thomas was elected three times to the Avon Board of Education, serving 12 years, and serves as an administrative hearing officer for several Connecticut state agencies. Thomas serves as Board Chairman of the Presbyterian Investment & Loan Program and serves on the Board of the Connecticut Access Health. He received a B.A. in history from Middlebury College and a J.D. degree from the Northwestern University School of Law in 1978.

Jason Micheli
Yorba Linda, California

Jason T. Micheli serves as the General Presbyter for the Presbytery of Santa Barbara and is an investment advisor at Financial Growth Management, Inc., an investment advisory firm in southern California. Jason previously served as Pastor at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Anaheim, California, Senior Pastor at Winter Park Presbyterian Church in Winter Park, Florida, and Associate Pastor at First Presbyterian Church & The Abbey in Columbus, Georgia.

Jason holds a BS in Finance from the University of Colorado - Boulder, an MDiv and MTh from Princeton Theological Seminary, and an MA and Phd in Hebrew and Semitic Studies from the University of Wisconsin - Madison.

Joyce Rarumangkay
Dumfries, Virginia

Joyce moved to the US from Indonesia in 1989 for her job with the World Bank Office in Washington, D.C. Through her 30-year of experience working in this diverse global institution in its Jakarta and Washington offices, Joyce gained experience in building effective support systems to serve people from different backgrounds and locations. As the Head of the World Bank's Administrative and Client Support Network, Joyce focused on building the career development program for about 2,000 administrative staff members from all over the world, and on increasing diversity through recruitment practices. She retired from the World Bank at the end of 2015.

Joyce was selected by the Racial Equity Advocacy Committee (REAC) to serve on the A Corporation Board. She is a ruling elder of the Clifton Presbyterian Church, Clifton, Virginia, and is currently serving as the elected chairperson of the Light to the Nations Network (a network of immigrants ministry of the National Capital Presbytery). She had previously served as a member of the Advocacy Committee for Women's Concerns.

JoAnne Sharp
Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida

JoAnne is a Ruling Elder, as well as a Certified Christian Educator of the PCUSA. She currently serves within the boundaries of Shenandoah Presbytery. She is passionate about Educational ministry and loves helping build the foundation of faith of all ages. She will complete her certification in Older Adult Ministries from Columbia Theological Seminary in the Spring of 2024.

JoAnne is a lifelong Presbyterian, growing up in the Southern branch of the Presbyterian Church, United States. As a Christian Educator she has served churches in South Carolina, Ohio, Texas, Virginia and Colorado. She has two adult children, Trey and Saye, two grandchildren, Tristen and JT, and 7 grandpups. She shares her home with Casper, an 11-year-old rescue kitty who she adopted in December 2022 along with his kitty sister Harper. Harper crossed over the Rainbow Bridge in August after receiving lots of love. She will share pictures of the grandchildren, Casper and Harper and the grandpups with anyone willing to look at them. She is also a knitter, and shares knitted prayer clothes with many.

JoAnne serves on the Advocacy Committee for Women and Gender Justice (ACWGJ or WGJ) and has been at that table since 2016 first as a liaison and then as an elected member beginning in 2018. Gender Justice especially in regards to women and those who identify as women is a passion of hers. She holds her call to serve the national church on ACWGJ second only to her call to educational ministry. Serving on the A Corp board since 2018 has been a blessing and she is pleased with the work that has been accomplished by the A Corp board over the past 5 years. She is excited to see what else can be accomplished over the next 3 years of her term and living into hope not only for the PC(USA) but God's kin-dom for the good of ALL people.

William (Bill) Teng
Lake Suzy, Florida

Born and raised in Hong Kong, the Rev. William (Bill) Teng is a fourth-generation Presbyterian minister. After concluding 40 years of active ministry teaching at the Alliance Bible Seminary in Hong Kong and serving congregations in New York; Texas; Hong Kong (twice); Florida (twice); Washington, D.C.; and Alexandria, Virginia, Bill retired from called ministry at the end of 2018 in order to serve in transitional ministry. He has since served as interim pastor at Ardmore Presbyterian Church, in the Philadelphia area, and currently at Trinity Presbyterian Church in Venice, Florida. He is currently serving at Covenant Presbyterian Church in Fort Myers, FL.

Bill received advanced degrees in music and theology and has served on various councils of the larger church. He was nominated by National Capital Presbytery to stand for moderator of the 218th General Assembly in 2008. He was elected to the A Corp Board in 2018 and served as its co-chair (2020-22) and was re-elected in 2022 to serve another 4-year term. Bill is also a volunteer chaplain with the Civil Air Patrol, the auxiliary of the United States Air Force, with the rank of Major. He and his wife, Karen, reside in Lake Suzy, Florida.

Carol Winkler
Dayton, Kentucky

Carol Winkler, Dayton, KY. Carol serves as the representative for Presbyterian Women. She was the 2015-2018 moderator of Presbyterian Women in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A), Inc. Board of Directors.

Carol has served PW and the PC (U.S.A) at all levels of the church for over 40 years. In addition to being moderator, Carol has been on the PW national board representing the Synod of the Covenant and served on the planning teams for PW Churchwide Gatherings for over 20 years. In addition to PW, she has served the church on the synod Board of Trustees, helped create the national Educate a Child, Transform the World Initiative, was a member of the Presbyterian Mission Agency Board. She served on the staff for the Presbytery of Cincinnati as the Coordinator of Administration and Finance for 12 years. As an elder of First Presbyterian Church, Ft. Thomas, KY, she is currently serving as Clerk of Session.
