

March/April 2006
Church & Society

GLOBALIZATION: A CALL TO LISTEN, A CHALLENGE TO RESPOND

1	Introduction	Gwen Crawley
5	Prayerful Reflection on Globalization	Charles Wiley
12	Living Faithful Lives in a Market Economy	Rebecca Blank
18	The Ethics of Globalization	Rebecca Todd Peters
23	Faith and Economic Life	John Knapp
GLIMPSES OF LIFE IN A MARKET ECONOMY
29	Seeing Globalization with New Eyes	Eric Hinderliter
32	Differing Perspectives on How Best to Feed the World	Gwen Crawley, Christi Boyd Gloria Wheeler, Tim Wheeler
39	Who Can Own Water?	Susan Helen Ellison
43	Water – A Resource for All, Not the Privileged Few	Thomas John
ECUMENICAL CHALLENGES
44	A Call to Love and Action	World Council of Churches
50	Covenanting for Justice in the Economy and the Earth	World Alliance of Reformed Churches
58	Wealth and Poverty: Challenge to the Churches	Yash Tandon
LISTENING LOCALLY, RESPONDING IN PARTNERSHIP
63	Presbyterians and Peru: A Partnership Chronicled	Elinor Stock
68	Oil, AIDS and the Churches in Cameroon	Christi Boyd, Valery Nodum
75	The Bolivia Partnership	Susan Helen Ellison, Brad Hestir
80	Corporate Citizenship: How the Church Can Be Involved	Gwen Crawley
85	Alternative Structures: A Means to Justice	Gwen Crawley
ENVISIONING A BETTER FUTURE
90	Moving Toward a New Future	Rebecca Todd Peters
94	U.N. Development Goals: Keeping the Promise	Gwen Crawley
99	Lifestyle and Consumer Choices	Melanie Hardison
104	Finding Our Religious Voice	Lynn McClintock Connette
107	Advocacy for Just Globalization	Catherine Gordon
110	Liturgical Resources	World Alliance of Reformed Churches
114	Questions and Suggestions for Study and Engagement
119	Additional Resources

Photo: Patricia K. Gleich

GLOBALIZATION

Church & Society

MARCH/APRIL 2006

VOLUME 96, Num

MARCH/APRIL 2006
church & society

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.)

GLOBALIZATION

A Call to Listen, A Challenge to Respond

The Ethics of Globalization ~ Glimpses of Life in a Market Economy ~
Ecumenical Challenges ~ Partnership ~ Envisioning a Better Future