Leadership

Skills for our ministries

Campus Outreach

College student ministry

Fact

80-90% of second generation Korean youth, once active in their church youth groups, are quietly disengaging themselves from Christianity during their college years. What we are witnessing is a "silent exodus". If the trend continues, immigrant churches may face a critical shortage of leadership in the future.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

A Leadership Conference for Christian College Students led by Korean-American Student Empowerment

Tuesday, July 31st -
Friday, August 3rd, 2007
Denver, Colorado

Vision Statement

Korean-American Student Empowerment (KASE) is a network of college students.

The vision of KASE is to cultivate, refine, and equip Christian college students in leadership serving God in the church and society.

Who?

College students, E.M. pastors, and Juniors who want to be involved in the college student leadership ministry.

Our Speakers

Rev. Jim Bob Park

Rev. Park currently serves as Senior Pastor at Binneri Church in Dallas, Texas. Rev. Park is a 1.5 generation Korean-American who has served most of his ministry with the English Ministry.

Dr. Joh ann Kim

Associate Professor at the Colorado Christian University, Dr. Kim teaches the New Testament in the School of Theology. His ministry emphasizes integrating faith and learning through an approach to Scriptures with humility and trust.

Dr. Kyung-il Ghynn

Founder of KASE, Dr. Ghynn has a gracious heart for college student ministry. Dr. Ghynn also serves as the Vice Moderator of the National Korean Presbyterian Council and the President of the Presbyterian Men of PC(USA) (as of April 2007), in addition to his teaching position as a Professor of Marketing & International Business at the University of Nevada, Reno
