

List of Reformed Theologians and Educational Theorists

PLEASE NOTE: These are not exhaustive lists but are offered as a resource for Educators seeking certification and their Advisors for work in CCE Part IIA

Advisors and Educators MAY use these lists to:

- become familiar with the work of several Reformed theologians and education theorists who have historically informed education ministry, as a supplement to materials used in certification coursework.
- select Reformed theologians and education theorists for use in the exam, in addition to those whose work was included in coursework.
