MEMORIAL MINUTE FOR BENJAMIN LACY ROSE

Moderator Reyes-Chow assumed the chair. Moderator Reyes-Chow recognized Vernon Broyles for a Memorial Minute for Ben Lacy Rose, Moderator of the 111th General Assembly (1971) of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. Broyles read the text of the memorial minutes written by George M. Conn, Jr.

Benjamin Lacy Rose 1914-2007
Moderator, 111th General Assembly (1971), PCUS

Born Fayetteville, NC. Davidson College, BA 1935, Union Theological Seminary in Virginia, BD 1938, ThM 1955, ThD 1955. Wife, Anne; Children, Anne, Irene, Lucy, Benjamin, Jr. Ordained October 12, 1938. Pastor Chinquapin and Bethel Churches, Chinquapin and Beulaville, NC 1938-41; Chaplain, US Army 1941-46; Pastor Central Church, Bristol, VA 1946--55; Pastor First Church, Wilmington, NC 1955-56; Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Care, Union Theological Seminary in Virginia 1956-78; Honorably Retired 1978.

Those are the somewhat soulless statistics. Between 1914 and 2007, the span of his life, there is a "dash"(-). It is within that "dash" that one finds the richness of Benjamin Lacy Rose's life.

I remember Ben Rose the preacher. It was under his ministry that as a young man on a spiritual pilgrimage I first heard the Gospel preached in a way that was evangelically warm, intellectually respectable, and always understandable.

I remember Ben Rose the pastor. A man who had time for all who came seeking his advice, support or understanding. I remember him coming to his office after 11:00 on a Saturday night to sit with and listen to a frightened and tearful young man who was trying to make sense out of what he was afraid was a call to the ministry. I remember notes and phone calls of encouragement over the next 50 years.

I remember Ben Rose the patriot. Quoted more than once in books Like D-DAY THE 6TH OF JUNE AND A BRIDGE TOO FAR, he was a man of fierce pride in his country and deep compassion for the soldiers he served. After the end of WW II, he remained in the Reserves and continued to serve as a the frequent retreat leader for Army Chaplains stationed all over the world, in war and peace.

I remember Ben Rose the prophet. I was privileged to hear him preach the sermon in the mid -1950's staking out his unwavering support for an open church which welcomed all people and stood for racial justice. The General Assembly of the PCUS ordered that sermon printed and sent to every church within that denomination.

I remember Ben Rose the professor. Not content simply to teach young seminarians the fundamentals of preaching, how to officiate at a wedding, conduct a funeral, and how to make a hospital call, he insisted on testing himself against the changing realities within the church by serving as the Stated Supply of the Lake Waccamaw, NC and as the "in-parish-resident-professor" at the Little Chapel on the Boardwalk Church, Wrightsville, NC. 1973-78.

I remember Ben Rose, preacher, pastor, prophet, professor and over the years, mentor, friend, and always, my "Father in the faith".

Broyles concluded with prayer.
