Study Tour Questionnaire:

Your answers to the following questions will help us learn more about you before the tour and plan a program that would be beneficial to everyone involved in the tour. Applications will be accepted as long as space is available. Maximum tour number is 15.

If you need more room to answer any of the following questions, please attach a separate piece of paper.

1. JMP Study Tours combine travel with charity work. Why do you wish to participate in the Jinishian Memorial Program Study Tour to Armenia? How do you plan to share your study tour experience when you return home?

2. What involvement, if any, have you had in relief and economic/community development work in your church, community or abroad?

3. What interests/ skills/ background do you bring which will enrich the experience for yourself and for the group?

4. What experiences, if any, have you had with cultures different from your own? Please describe any other experience you've had working or traveling in other countries.

5. Study Tours can often be very demanding on a person's mental and physical health; persons traveling on the study tour may experience lack of sleep, physical exertion, a sudden change in itinerary, and strong emotional responses to witnessing the conditions of extreme poverty. Do you feel that this will present any problems for you? If so, please explain.
