Bookmarks

When you open these documents you will notice a bookmark window on the left of your screen. These bookmarks may be expanded or condensed by clicking on the icon to the left of the title. By clicking on a bookmark you will be taken directly to that destination. The book mark window may be closed by clicking on the Bookmark tab.

Links

Within the body of your document you will notice some references that appear in red (or enclosed in a red box). If you direct your cursor to the red text (or within the red box) until it becomes a finger and click on it you will be taken to that reference. To return, click the Back button on Adobe Reader's menu bar at the top of the screen or press alt + 8 on your keyboard.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Changes made by the 215th General Assembly (2003) to overtures, commissioners' resolutions, communications, recommendations, and resolutions of General Assembly entities appear as text enclosed in brackets. Bracketed text that is underlined was added by the assembly to the original text; bracketed text that is stricken was original text deleted by the assembly.

This format serves to ensure a complete historic record of the actions of the General Assembly by noting both the original recommendation sent to the assembly and the revised text approved by the assembly.

Copies of the printed version are available from
