

SHE'S HOMELESS, HALF-STARVED AND FORTUNATE. 30,000 OTHERS ARE DEAD.

The aggressors in the Sudan tragedy are called Janjaweed militias. They have burned villages and driven more than two million people from their home lands. They have raped, maimed, looted, and plundered food stocks and medical supplies and have killed at least 30,000. But aid is getting in. Presbyterian Disaster Assistance asks you to help. To find out how visit www.pcusa.org/pda

WHAT YOU CAN DO:

Pray:

For God's intervention in the lives of the people of Darfur and for the relief workers who are struggling to serve them.

Give:

Through your church to Sudan Relief #9-2000043, or use the web site to give by credit card. Individuals can also send checks directly to Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), Individual Remittance Processing, P.O. Box 643700, Pittsburgh, PA 15264-3700.

Lift Your Voice and Advocate for the Voiceless:

Join the Sudan Advocacy Action Forum for regular updates and advocacy suggestions by contacting Bill Andress at billandress@ureach.com or Bobbie Francis McDonald at oldanew@aol.com

Stay Informed:

Prayers, news updates, and advocacy suggestions are all posted regularly to the Presbyterian Disaster Assistance web site at www.pcusa.org/pda

