

Dear friends,

I would like to be introduce myself, my name is LIEN, I was born and grow up in the Catholic family in Sai gon -the old capital of VN before the war 1975. I was studied in high school for girls with ma soeurs, France program, Perhaps that it made me have a burden about the female problems.

I have changed my relegion when I was 21 year old and one year later I had served with teenager in church until 1990 I have build home church. I have become leader of home church at that time till one day, my husband and me met some pastors from UPC came to VN. We are ordained by them and have continued train by KPC till the last 2007.

Now I am ps of one local church in HCMC and leader of women in the general church. I have share my sermon every weeks and go every where to train for women and youth .

Lien grew up Catholic in Saigon (now Ho Chi Minh City), studying in a French girls' school where she developed concern for women's issues. At 21, she became a Protestant and began a new congregation which she and her husband led. They were later trained and ordained by visiting Presbyterians. She now pastors a local church and is a leader of women in the small Presbyterian Church in Vietnam. She helps to train women and youth throughout the nation.
