

Sarah Henken

Sarah Henken is the current coordinator of the Colombia Accompaniment Program. Her experience with Colombia began with her first trip as a companioner in May of 2006, and she has made three visits since then, including as a translator/interpreter for the Chicago Presbytery delegation to the Presbyterian Church of Colombia's 150th anniversary celebration in August 2006.

Originally from Los Angeles, Sarah lived in Uruguay and Argentina as a PC(USA) mission volunteer prior to beginning seminary and becoming involved in the Colombia Accompaniment Program. Sarah is a candidate for ordination from San Fernando Presbytery and a graduate of McCormick Theological Seminary.
