

“We Are God’s Work of Art”

Who am I, God,
That you would set me high
Upon a rock?
We are God's work of art.

Who am I, Lord,
That you would reveal your face
Everywhere I turn?
We are God's work of art.

Who am I, Spirit,
That you would speak to me
In the wilderness?
We are God's work of art.

Who am I, God,
That you would set my soul to soar
Where my feet can no longer tread?
We are God's work of art.

Who am I, Lord,
That you would cleanse me
With water and fire?
We are God's work of art.

Who am I, Spirit,
That you would drown me
In your majesty,
Flood me in your might,
Awe me in your power?
We are God's work of art.

Lover of my soul,
I am your child.
Just one ordinary person.
Yet more beautiful to you,
More precious to you,
More loved by you
Crafted by you with more care
Than the mesa itself.
We are God's work of art.

Lover of my soul,
Enter deep within my heart.
Lover of my soul,
I am your work of art.
AMEN.

Peter Colombe

This litany was published in the More Light Update. The More Light Update is the official publication of More Light Presbyterians. Visit their Web site at www.mlp.org.