

And I pray that you, being rooted
and established in love, may have power together with the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high
and deep is the love of Christ.

Presbyterians Organized in Nurture and Teaching (POINT) will gather for annual training January 26–27, 2010, in Nashville, Tennessee. “How Deep is Your Well?” is this year’s theme. Participants will explore what it means to embrace, nurture and commit to a deeper and wider faith as the body of Christ, called to Grow Christ’s Church Deep and Wide.

Dr. Susan E. Hylen, Assistant Professor of New Testament, Vanderbilt University Divinity School, will be our guest. Dr. Hylen, who teaches biblical interpretation and focuses her research on the characterizations, metaphor, and irony in the gospel of John, will offer insights about what a deep and wide faith look like. She will lead a process around tables for participants to articulate their own expressions of faith and to experience corporate discernment on the depth of faith.

The event schedule will include a new-to-POINT orientation, a presbytery staff gathering, plenary and group process framed in worship, exploration of Web sites and tools, and an in-depth experience with an age-specific session of the revitalized We Believe to discover how our denominational curriculum helps congregations nurture disciples into a deeper and wider faith.
