

We Believe Workshop

A group activity

GOAL: To familiarize participants with the We Believe Workshop curriculum from Congregational Ministries Publishing

OVERVIEW: We Believe Workshop, designed for rotation model Church School, debuted as a downloadable resource from Congregational Ministries Publishing, September 1, 2005. The writers of We Believe Workshop are pastors and educators with a variety of experience with workshop curriculum. Each available unit includes “Leader-to-Leader” material and seven workshops with session plans and resource pages. The A, B, C, D We Believe format is used for each session.

ORDERING: A unit with seven workshops for $99.95* or an individual workshop for $16.95 can be ordered and downloaded at www.pcusa.org/webelieve. Available units include:

Visit pcusa.org/webelieve/workshop for a complete list of available units by year and in biblical sequence, free samples, and information about unit and workshop layouts. Order online through this Web site.

*Multi-unit purchase: three to five units @ $84.95 each; six or more @ $74.95 each

MATERIALS NEEDED FOR THE ACTIVITY: Copies of a We Believe Workshop Unit for each table, this activity sheet, and pens or pencils.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTIVITY:

Participants will become familiar with the “Leader-to-Leader” materials and the seven workshops of a We Believe Workshop Unit.

DIRECTIONS:

1. Provide a We Believe Workshop unit per table of participants.
2. Divide participants into pairs or small groups.
3. Ask each small group to explore one aspect of a unit: Leader- to-Leader, art, storyteller, games, etc.
4. Make note of the format and some of the creative ideas found in each workshop.
5. Regroup around the table and discuss what was discovered about We Believe Workshop, using the sharing questions provided or others the group may have.

SHARING QUESTIONS:

1. What makes We Believe Workshop unique from other rotation curricula?
2. How can We Believe Workshop be used to enrich or supplement We Believe or other traditional quarterly church school programs?
3. In what other educational settings could We Believe Workshop be used?