

Mission Emanuel Women's Cooperative
Santo Domingo, República Dominicana

Dear Creative Ministries Offering Committee and Presbyterian Women,

Thank you for helping fund our project! The Mission Emanuel staff and women of the cooperative are so excited to have your support. The project is well underway, and adding a coordinator to work on expanding funding and retail markets will help tremendously. The women of Cielo and Nazaret are already greatly benefiting from the work of the Cooperative. This project has only begun to scratch the surface of what God can do to change the lives of women, men and children in the Dominican Republic.

Thank you,
Jack Larson
Executive Director

2008 Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women

This project is one of 28 grant recipients of the 2008 Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women. The Thank Offering supports new and creative projects that meet the needs of people who are elderly, disabled, homeless or displaced, as well as children, youth and women through educational, health, peace and justice programs both internationally and in the United States.

To learn more about the Thank Offering, to find out the requirements for applying for a grant or for a complete list of mission/purpose statements for the recipients, contact the PW associate for special offerings, 888/728-7228, ext. 5387, Cindy.Goodman@pcusa.org, or visit www.pcusa.org/pw.

Hospitality Hub
Memphis, Tennessee

Dear Creative Ministries Offering Committee and Presbyterian Women,

We were so pleased to receive notification that the Hospitality Hub received a $10,000 grant from your organization. Thank you so much for your support! In May 2007, we opened our doors as a hospitality and resource agency for people who are homeless. To date, we have seen more than 1,500 first-time guests.

We offer basic hospitality—refreshments, lockers, travelers' aid and chapel—and help in getting birth certificates or state identification cards. We also provide referrals to other agencies that can assist our guests. We strive to assist our homeless guests as they find their way to emotional, financial and spiritual stability.

Thank you again and God bless.

Sincerely,
Moriah McStay Lee
Executive Director

2008 Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women

This project is one of 28 grant recipients of the 2008 Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women. The Thank Offering supports new and creative projects that meet the needs of people who are elderly, disabled, homeless or displaced, as well as children, youth and women through educational, health, peace and justice programs both internationally and in the United States.

To learn more about the Thank Offering, to find out the requirements for applying for a grant or for a complete list of mission/purpose statements for the recipients, contact the PW associate for special offerings, 888/728-7228, ext. 5387, Cindy.Goodman@pcusa.org, or visit www.pcusa.org/pw.

Thornwell Home for Children
Clinton, South Carolina

Dear Creative Ministries Offering Committee and Presbyterian Women,

Thornwell Home for Children is deeply grateful that you have chosen to award a grant of $20,282 for our dental clinic project. On behalf of Thornwell's Board of Trustees, staff and children, let me express our sincere thanks to Presbyterian Women for electing to support this important part of our mission to children.

We have begun sharing the good news of this grant with churches and presbyteries in the Synod of the South Atlantic, which is our geographic support base. Everyone is rejoicing with us!

Blessings,

Nancy H. Lindeman

Vice President, Resource Development and Public Relations

2008 Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women

This project is one of 28 grant recipients of the 2008 Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women. The Thank Offering supports new and creative projects that meet the needs of people who are elderly, disabled, homeless or displaced, as well as children, youth and women through educational, health, peace and justice programs both internationally and in the United States.

To learn more about the Thank Offering, to find out the requirements for applying for a grant or for a complete list of mission/purpose statements for the recipients, contact the PW associate for special offerings, 888/728-7228, ext. 5387, Cindy.Goodman@pcusa.org, or visit www.pcusa.org/pw.

Hill Tribes Youth

Accra, Ghana

Dear Creative Ministries Offering Committee and Presbyterian Women,

We are most appreciative to you for awarding our project a grant of $20,000.

The grant will help us buy raw materials to construct a maternity ward and youth training center. Expanding our healthcare facilities and training additional staff will help lower the number of mother and infant deaths.

We are proud of PW and its support for people who are poor or in need. Pregnant women who are poor or marginalized suffer due to the long distances they must travel to get medical care from trained health personnel. We are very grateful for your intervention in this the critical health situation.

God bless Presbyterian Women!

Yours in Christ,
Karen Addo

2008 Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women

This project is one of 28 grant recipients of the 2008 Thank Offering of Presbyterian Women. The Thank Offering supports new and creative projects that meet the needs of people who are elderly, disabled, homeless or displaced, as well as children, youth and women through educational, health, peace and justice programs both internationally and in the United States.

To learn more about the Thank Offering, to find out the requirements for applying for a grant or for a complete list of mission/purpose statements for the recipients, contact the PW associate for special offerings, 888/728-7228, ext. 5387, Cindy.Goodman@pcusa.org, or visit www.pcusa.org/pw.