Wee Believe is the newly developed four-quarter early childhood curriculum for toddlers (18—36 months) and preschoolers (three to five years). It is written and designed to nurture the development of faith through age-appropriate Bible stories. Recognizing that young children learn through repetition, most Bible stories are explored over two sessions. Wee Believe Toddler and Preschool follow the same scope and sequence and include:

- An all-inclusive Teacher's Book
- Easy-to-use lesson plans
- Bible stories written specifically for each lesson
- Age-appropriate learning activities
- Full-color Bible story pictures
- Resource pages
- Enrichment activities to help parents or caregivers reinforce the Bible stories at home
- Wee Believe Bible Storyteller Bag (sold separately) used in each session during Bible Story

FAQ: Faithfully Asking Questions

This new quarterly curriculum for fall, winter and spring connects faith questions collected from Presbyterian youth with questions from The Study Catechism: Confirmation Version. Young people will bring their questions to the Bible and learn to navigate Scripture as they address issues of life and faith. The 13-session Leader's Guide includes engaging reproducible sheets, background information and multiple teaching options. Intended for younger youth, this curriculum will be easily adaptable for broadly graded youth programs.

Special Features

- Movie, music, media and technology connections
- Downloadable resources for leaders
- Multiple options for learning activities in each session
- Intentional emphasis on spiritual development, mission and justice, recreation, and spiritual arts throughout the curriculum
- Optional session enhancements include ideas and resources for connecting with families of youth, the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), worship and more!

FAQ Winter 2009-2010 matches questions from youth with questions from Shorter Catechism: Confirmation Version. Helps learners look to the Bible and the Reformed faith to address real questions. Sessions are built on Bible study with learning activities designed for small and large groups of learners.

Faith Questions

Patterned around the marks of membership from the Book of Order, these mini-courses are based on faith questions posed by older youth. Young people will be encouraged to look to Scripture and to our faith tradition in relevant, responsive ways. Each Leader's Guide contains a four- or six-week exploration of a faith question. Intended for older youth, this curriculum is easily adaptable for broadly graded youth programs.

Special Features:

- Movie, music, media and technology connections
- Downloadable resources for leaders
- Multiple options for learning activities in each session
- Intentional emphasis on spiritual development, mission and justice, recreation and spiritual arts throughout the curriculum

Optional session enhancements that include ideas and resources for connecting with families of youth, the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), worship and more!

THEOLOGY WORSHIP AND EDUCATION

Call to Worship, Vol. 43.1 Liturgy, Music, Preaching, and the Arts

Call to Worship: Liturgy, Music, Preaching, and the Arts offers insight and inspiration for pastors, church musicians, artists and other worship leaders. This quarterly journal is published by the Office of Theology and Worship of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). Four print issues per year explore current topics in liturgical theology and practice, such as John Calvin (August 2009); Healing (November 2009); Living the Christian Year (February 2010); and Hymnody (May 2010). Each issue includes original artwork as well as full-color features on liturgical arts.

Call to Worship subscribers: the Lectionary Aids are now online.

The new and improved electronic Lectionary Aids service, available online to Call to Worship subscribers, provides worship planning materials for the church year. For every Sunday and festival in the liturgical calendar, you'll find calls to worship and prayers of confession, along with suggestions for hymns, psalms, global music, praise and worship songs, choral anthems, organ selections and hand bell music. Based on the Revised Common Lectionary, suggestions related to both complementary and semi-continuous readings are included. You'll also find new prayers for illumination and Eucharistic prayers for particular seasons of the Christian year, as well as resources for leading parts of worship from the font and table. See a sample of lectionary aids for the First Sunday of Advent, Year B.

Spiritual Leadership for Church Officers: A Handbook, Joan Gray, Geneva Press, 2009. This timely new leadership guide for the PC (USA) is written for church officers who are looking for a deepened relationship with God as they serve the church. Author Joan Gray challenges elders and deacons to see themselves as spiritual leaders and equips them to act as spiritual leaders alongside their pastors. After all, even the most dynamic and gifted pastor will be hamstrung if the congregation's lay leaders are lethargic, conflicted, or spiritually anemic. Gray lays out a variety of leadership styles and helps leaders understand when each might be appropriate. She goes on to provide resources for dealing with interpersonal relationships in the church and identifies ways churches can create an atmosphere that is supportive of the spiritual leadership of elders and deacons. She also explores things the officers themselves can do to become more effective.
