PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.) WASHINGTON OFFICE

When Jesus was asked to state the greatest commandment, he replied, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart... And a second is like it, you shall love your neighbor as yourself.” One way we can love our neighbors is to help shape the laws and policies that define how we live together in God’s world.

That is why we developed the Witness in Washington Weekly. It is great to have concerns about peace and justice. But concern alone won’t do much: it has to be channeled into action.

Here are 3 ways to be involved --

Witness in Washington (e-mail): Our electronic publication and advocacy program. It will cover various issues. Subscribers receive weekly messages and Alerts over the course of the year.

Washington Report to Presbyterians (paper): This is our 6-page newsletter mailed bi-monthly. Written by staff in the Washington Office, it covers issue areas on domestic and international legislation, as well as events.

Visit our Web site, www.pcusa.org/washington.
