

2011 – 2012 Directory African American Presbyterian Congregations

Louisville, KY

ABOUT THE AFRICAN AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL SUPPORT OFFICE

The African American Congregational Support Office assists the Presbyterian Church (USA) in addressing the needs of African American Presbyterian Congregations. The office provides leadership at all levels of the denomination in order to strengthen the nurture and witness of African American Congregations. The main focus of the office is growth, health and vitality for these congregations and their ministries.

This ministry works in partnership with presbyteries and congregations to help experience the unconditional love of God through Jesus Christ that empowers African American Presbyteries to be prophetic witnesses to the power of love to transform people, history, cultures and institutions. The African American Presbyterian legacy of prophetic leadership for justice and a culturally plural society has transformed the church and the world.

The Black Presbyterian Church provides a forum for African American to share one another's joys, concerns, achievements, sorrows and blessings. The Rev. John Gloucester began organizing the first African American congregation in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1807. The founding leaders named the congregation First African Presbyterian Church. John Gloucester commenced his missionary efforts by preaching in private houses June 1807 with twenty-two persons – nine men and thirteen women were organized in the church.

Our office encourages congregations to become empowered by the Holy Spirit so that healthy congregation will be transformed and will transform individuals so that they can transform communities.

As you read the directory, I want you to envision a partnership with the Holy Spirit, congregations, executives at National Office and Mid Council Faculty, Clergy Women, NBPC, Youth and Young Adults engaging in a process that will signal the beginning of an era in the Presbyterian Church (USA) where the Good News of God's love is shared with people of all backgrounds and begin living the vision of God's beloved community, to share with others God's love and devotion.

One Body with Many Members For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many.

1 Corinthians 12:12 - 14

Who are We?

The Rev. Arlene Gordon, recently retired executive presbyter for Tropical Florida Presbytery, was elected President of the National Black Presbyterian Caucus, which met as part of the Big Tent event in Indianapolis IN. She succeeds the Rev. George Bentley, pastor of Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church in Tuscaloosa, AL on the campus of Stillman College.

In her first letter to NBPC members as president, Gordon wrote: “There is much challenging work ahead ... I believe this organization is more vital now than ever before as we continue to faithfully serve our beloved church. The work that was begun by faithful and concerned Black Presbyterians to call the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) to accountability is still just as necessary in these current times. It is therefore incumbent upon each one of us to continue the important work that the National Black Presbyterian Caucus has done over the years to address the concerns and aspirations of Black Presbyterians and to keep our concerns and issues before the church at large.”

Purpose Statement for the National Black Presbyterian Caucus

It is the purpose of the National Black Presbyterian Caucus:

- To promote church growth and the strengthening of Black Presbyterian congregations in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.);
- To emphasize the spiritual growth of individual members;
- To continually focus on concerns stemming from Black religious and cultural traditions as well as political and economic issues;
- To speak and act on those issues that adversely affects the lives of People of African descent;
- To achieve full participation of its members in the total Church and society; and
- To combat racism and injustice.

FACTS ABOUT THE NBPC

NBPC represents the historic legacy and continuing existence of a Black Caucus in the Presbyterian Church which was first organized by Black clergy in 1856 at Shiloh Presbyterian Church of New York City.

NBPC has an annual increase in membership goal of 20% through 2010.

NBPC works in programmatic partnership with the Black Congregational Enhancement Office of the General Assembly (NMD); and works with the Advocacy Committee for Racial Ethnic Concerns (ACREC) of the General Assembly to develop recommendations to be acted upon by General Assembly.

NBPC maintains a data base of its membership in the national office and makes it available to chapters and regions upon request.

NBPC has an Africa Connection program that includes mission partnering with churches in Africa and in promoting the HOME-BASED AIDS KITS program among our Presbyterian Churches.
