

VERIFICATION OF MINISTRY
Christian Educator Certification

To the Staff and Session of the Congregation/Council/Agency:

The educator named below is applying to the Educator Certification Committee for recognition of performance as a Christian educator. The educator certification process is for people employed or volunteering in educational ministry in a Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) council or agency under the following conditions:

To be certified as a Christian educator, an individual must be

(1) a member of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.),

(2) employed for, or a volunteer in, more than 10 hours per week with specific responsibilities in educational ministry leadership.

(3) accountable to a council or agency of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

A completed Verification of Ministry Form, signed by a member of the employing/volunteering body and accompanied by a current position description will represent fulfillment of this requirement.
