

Co-moderator Report to COGA
April 18, 2024

It is an extremely busy season as the home stretch to GA226 is rapidly approaching. I am sorry that I am not with you.

- The past week I had the opportunity to preach and lead a conversation about the state of the church in Strasburg, PA – hosted by local church and Donegal Presbytery
- Attended, preached and led conversation about state of the church at Huntingdon Presbytery in Holidaysburg, PA
- Shavon and I brought virtual greetings to the GA226 leadership that met in Louisville
- We continued to work with Valerie Izumi as we had to address some leadership changes in committee leadership. (What a rubic's cube).
- This past Monday – Unification Commission leadership met with former moderators of the PCUSA. It was a rich and insightful conversation.

Traveling this week

- Thursday - I will be in California meeting with leaders of San Fernando Presbytery
- Saturday - Speaking at the 100th Anniversary of the House of Rest in Pasadena, apartments and ministry initially created for missionaries on furlough. Founded by Gamble family. They continue to serve mission co-workers, retirees.

Sunday - Preaching at Pasadena Presbyterian church
