Prayer Room - OCC, Rooms B111-112

These rooms are set aside for personal prayer, quiet time, rest, and spiritual reflection, and staffed by volunteers from the Committee on Local Arrangements. As individuals enter, they are welcomed into rooms that reflect the Pacific Northwest with a woodland setting, native plants, and Pendleton fabrics. They are encouraged to explore various prayer resources which include prayer prompts and examples of various types of prayer, poetry, and the opportunity to “pray with color.” The first room also provides space to meet one-on-one with a spiritual director if desired. The adjacent room will feature a classical labyrinth and finger labyrinths for those who prefer not to walk. The fountain in this room will recall the mighty rivers coursing through the Cascades Presbytery.

Presbyterian Polity, Program and Mission Educator Certification Course – OCC, Room A 109

Saturday, June 18 at 8:45 a.m. – Wednesday, June 22 at noon

Advance registration is required.

Christian educators, teaching and ruling elders, and church members are sometimes not aware of the rich resources in the Book of Order, and the ability of polity to empower congregational ministry, faith formation, spiritual practices, and vocation as a mark of the God who sends the church into the world. Exploring polity in the context of the General Assembly will provide participants a broad understanding of the structure, governance, and mission of the PC(USA) and a vibrant picture of the church at work on the important issues that shape life and faith. In addition, access to the exhibit hall will provide lively interaction with resource materials produced by the denomination and the people who actively engage the denomination in ministry and mission. Through participation in worship; observation of committee discernment, plenary debate, and decision-making; and interaction with denominational leadership; course participants will be immersed in the work of this council that brings the diverse church together as one representation of the body of Christ. The instructor is Joyce MacKichan Walker.

General Assembly Pedaling Pilgrimage 2016

Sweaty Sheep

Hundreds of Presbyterians will climb into airplanes, cars, or buses bound to Portland for the 222nd General Assembly, but one group of assembly-goers will travel in a more unconventional way—on bicycles. Sweaty Sheep Ministries (www.sweatysheep.com), a new worshipping community with the tagline, “Re-creation Through Recreation,” is sponsoring a 10-day "Pedaling Pilgrimage" tour/retreat from Santa Cruz, California, to Portland. Riders will camp out with various churches along the way and highlight each through live streamed worship services. There are options for partial participation and non-cyclists. Contact Ryan Althaus at (443) 223-7334 or ryan@sweatysheep.com if you would like to participate, have a cycling congregant to send, or if you or your church would like to sponsor a day of the ride! Like "Pedaling Pilgrimage to Portland GA" on Facebook to keep up with the journey virtually!

8:30 am–10:30 am	Riverside Conversations Office of the General Assembly Who are we as a church? What is our identity and our calling? What are the core issues that draw us together in discipleship? How do these affirmations inform our work as an assembly? These are just a few of the questions that have informed the Committee on the Office of the General Assembly (COGA) in their study and reflections provided in the paper “When we Gather At the Table: A PC(USA) Snapshot” [found in PC-biz as item Ox-0x]. For the last several assemblies, the Stated Clerk has provided an opportunity for commissioners and advisory delegates to gather before the official start of the assembly to begin the discussions that inform discernment throughout the week. These workshops are traditionally called “Riverside Conversations”. At this assembly COGA is inviting commissioners and advisory delegates to spend this time digging deeper into the questions raised by the “When We Gather At the Table” document and other resources. Using a Conversation Café model, and gathered in small groups, this is an opportunity to begin clarifying some of the underlying visions for who we are and what it means to be a denomination.
