

2020 Vision Team

Class of 2018

1. Bernadette Coffee, Co-Moderator	BFR	56–65	Tres Rios	SUN	Ruling Elder
2. DèAnn Cunningham	BFR	46–55	Charlotte	MAT	Ruling Elder
3. Michael Fagans	WMR	46–55	San Joaquin	PAC	Ruling Elder
4. Chris McCain	WMR	26–35	Greater Atlanta	SA	Ruling Elder
5. Joshua Narcisse	BMR	25–	New York City	NE	Ruling Elder
6. Salvador D. Gavalda Corchado	HMR	26–35	San Juan	BPR	Ruling Elder
7. Joshua T. Andrzejewski	WMT	26–35	The James	MAT	Teaching Elder
8. Deborah G. Foster	WFT	46–55	Foothills	MAT	Teaching Elder
9. Don Lee	AMT	26–35	Eastern Korean	NE	Teaching Elder
10. Jerrod B. Lowry	BMT	36–45	Utah	ROC	Teaching Elder
11. Lisa Juica Perkins, Co-Moderator	HFT	26–35	Grace	SUN	Teaching Elder
12. Karen Sapio	WFT	46–55	San Gabriel	SCH	Teaching Elder
13. Justin Botejue	AML	25–	Inland Northwest	ANW	YAAD Way Forward AC
14. Sabrina Slater	OFL	26–35	Inland Northwest	ANW	At-large
15. Rebecca Snedeker-Meier	WFL	25–	Maumee Valley	COV	At-large

Ex-officio

Tawnya Denise Anderson, Co-Moderator | 222nd General Assembly (2016)

Jan Edmiston, Co-Moderator | 222nd General Assembly (2016)

Class	FL	ML	FR	MR	FT	MT	A	B	H	M	N	W	Multi	D	Under 40
2018	2	1	2	4	3	3	2	4	2	0	0	6	1	1	10
Total	2	1	2	4	3	3	2	4	2	0	0	6	1	1	10

Short Biographical Information – Members of the 2020 Vision Team 2016

Joshua T. Andrzejewski (Presbytery of the James) has been the chaplain for Pediatrics and Women’s Health at VCU Health, Richmond, Va., since 2012. He is the moderator of the presbytery’s committee on nominations, was a commissioner to the 222nd General Assembly (2016) (on the Assembly Committee on the Way Forward), and recently completed two years of service as the covenant pastor for Cove Presbyterian Church.

Justin Botejue (Presbytery of Inland Northwest) is a recent graduate of Whitworth University, a historically Presbyterian-affiliated college. He has been a youth observer to the 221st General Assembly (2014) and a youth adult advisory delegate for the 222nd General Assembly (2016) for the Presbytery of Los Ranchos. As a lifelong Presbyterian, Botejue has attended the Presbyterian Youth Triennium both as a participant and volunteer, participated in various PC(USA) conferences, including Big Tent, and received the PC(USA) Student Opportunity Scholarship while studying at Whitworth.

Bernadette "Bernie" Coffee, Co-Moderator (Presbytery of Tres Rios) is a ruling elder in the Presbytery of Tres Rios. She has just completed six years on session as clerk of session. Bernie is active on the missional ministry team (formerly COM) and is currently moderator elect. She is currently involved in local church, presbytery, and synod. Bernie serves on at least four community boards.

DèAnn Cunningham (Presbytery of Charlotte) is currently serving as clerk of session and volunteer church administrator for Smallwood Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N.C. She is also currently serving on the presbytery’s church development committee; working with the local churches to equip, engage, and pray for these houses of worship; and the strategic planning taskforce to restructure the work of the Presbytery of Charlotte.

Michael Fagans (Presbytery of San Joaquin) is a ruling elder, photojournalist, and filmmaker from Bakersfield where he works as the coordinator for the Kern Coalition Against Human Trafficking as well as the director of strategic communication for United Way of Kern County. He served two full terms with the church's national Self-Development of People committee and most recently was the coordinator for the Tour Against Trafficking: an ecumenical, nonprofit, and corporate partnership issue awareness and fundraising effort.

Deborah G. Foster (Presbytery of Foothills) serves as associate stated clerk and associate pastor for the Presbytery of Foothills. She also serves as parish associate at Central Presbyterian, Anderson S.C. Deborah is an ICF certified coach and lead consultant with Ministry Architects. She currently serves as the president of SOAP (South Atlantic Puerto Rico Association of APCE). Deborah has served the PC(USA) for more than thirty years in a variety of ministry settings.

Salvador D. Gavaldá Corchado (Presbytery of San Juan) serves as the the Swanigan Fellow for the Synod of Mid-America. He has served as moderator of the Sínodo Boriquén in Puerto Rico and on its mission council. He is a member of the Iglesia Presbiteriana en Caparra Terrace in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Lisa Juica Perkins, Co-Moderator (Presbytery of Grace) serves as admissions associate for ecclesial partnerships at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. She has served as moderator of the young adult ministry committee and is currently a new beginnings facilitator for her presbytery. Lisa works with youth, young adults, and churches looking to be faithful followers of God's call upon them.

Don Lee (Eastern Korean American Presbytery) is the English ministry pastor at Praise Presbyterian Church in Somerset, N.J. He also serves as one of the pastors coordinating the Second-Generation Korean-American Pastors, a national conference held every year working to bring guidance, vision, and unity for the Korean American church at-large in the PC(USA).

Jerrod B. Lowry (Presbytery of Utah) is the pastor of Community of Grace Presbyterian Church in Sandy, Utah. He serves on the coordinating council of the presbytery and has served on the Stated Clerk Nominating Committee, the Committee for the Office of the General Assembly, and the General Assembly Committee on Ecumenical and Interreligious Relations.

Chris McCain (Presbytery of Greater Atlanta) is director of strategic partnerships at the Forum for Theological Exploration (FTE), a leadership incubator that supports emerging leaders for the church and academy. He also chairs the presbytery's grants committee and serves on the transition committee for his congregation, Central Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, Ga.

Joshua Narcisse (Presbytery of New York City) is a ruling elder at Dunton Presbyterian Church, and has served as a YAAD to the Synod of the Northeast, the 220th General Assembly (2012), and as member to the Transitions Working Group of the Synod of the Northeast. He currently serves on the Committee on Congregational Ministry and Nurture for the Presbytery of New York City while attending Yale Divinity School as a first-year M.Div. student.

Karen Sapio (Presbytery of San Gabriel) is pastor of Claremont Presbyterian Church in Claremont, Calif. She is co-chair of San Gabriel Presbytery's Vision and Strategy Team, and has previously served as chair of that presbytery's committee on ministry. Karen serves as co-chair of the NEXT Church strategy team as that organization supports innovation for and creative conversations about change in the PC(USA).

Sabrina Slater (Presbytery of Inland Northwest) currently representing PC(USA) at the Bossey Ecumenical Institute (Switzerland). A Princeton alum, in seminary she interned with the Office of Public Witness and served on the Presbyterian Women delegation to the 58th UN Commission on the Status of Women. A member of the PW Churchwide Gathering committee and ready to serve as a pastor, her prayer is to see with God's eyes, to hear with God's ears, and to have a heart broken where God's heart is broken.

Rebecca Snedeker-Meier (Presbytery of Maumee Valley) is a student at the College of Wooster in Wooster, Ohio. She was a YAAD for the 222nd General Assembly (2016) representing her church, First Presbyterian Church of Upper Sandusky, and is active in her presbytery, including serving on the worship planning committee. Earlier this year she studied abroad in Cork, Ireland, and had the opportunity to visit several other countries in Europe while she was there.