

John Wilkinson, Director of Ministry Engagement and Support

Ministry Engagement and Support works to secure the financial resources for Presbyterian mission and ministry, in particular the work of the Office of the General Assembly and the Presbyterian Mission Agency. We seek to help Presbyterians respond to God's call to be faithful stewards in all things, including their financial resources. We serve individuals, congregations, presbyteries and synods, providing a range of services and resources to support their work.

Key tasks for the department:

1. Through the Special Offerings and Appeals team, oversee the successful implementation of our four Special Offerings, the Presbyterian Giving Catalog, direct mail, and Pillars of Faith, providing a range of resources to encourage generous support.
2. Through the Relationship and Donor Operations team, effectively acknowledge gifts, respond to queries from constituents, track and manage all contributions and provide helpful data and analysis to staff.
3. Through the Ministry Engagement Advisor team, provide resources to individuals, congregations, presbyteries and synods to encourage generous support of Presbyterian mission and ministry. This includes in person and virtual consultation, workshop and seminar leadership, presence at conferences, meetings and other gatherings and regular conversation with local leaders to develop relationships.
